There are multiple things to consider when deciding whether and how to mentor. Greg Austin, Director of SOM Junior Faculty Mentor Program, will discuss topics including:

- How to take on a Mentee (or at least the specific mentee who approaches asking for mentoring)
- How do you identify the appropriate research project in regards to content, scope, and methodology for a particular Mentee?
- How to decline being a primary mentor, but still be helpful to a Mentee

A light lunch will be served. Please register at: https://gs.ucdenver.edu/limesurvey/index.php/935615
