

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL PRESENTS: MASTER OF ARTS IN COMMUNICATION

ENRICHING THE ROLES OF COMMUNICATION

Our fast-paced, global information society places a premium on speaking, writing, listening, and collaborating in effective, ethical, and engaging ways.

Advanced training in communication offers a versatile and timely set of knowledge and skills applicable across a variety of fields including advertising, business, health and medicine, international relations, education, media, government, politics and public relations.

WHY CHOOSE CU DENVER?

We merge active learning, world-class research, passionate learners, and engaging instructors to give students the knowledge and skills to create a more equitable and humane world.

CAREER PATHS OF GRADUATES

Our graduates go on to work as leaders and specialists in a broad range of settings including institutions of higher education, corporations and businesses, health care organizations, nonprofits, and arts institutions. A number also go on to the nation's leading graduate programs.

PROGRAM INFORMATION

CREDIT HOURS

- 33

REQUIREMENTS

- 1 Intro Course
- 1 Methods class
- 5 Seminars
- 4 Electives

AWARDS

- Faculty and students routinely win awards for teaching and research

VERSATILITY

- Fully customizable courses and electives

Find out more at
clas.ucdenver.edu/communication

