

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL PRESENTS: MASTER OF ARTS IN ENGLISH

WHY ENGLISH IS RIGHT FOR YOU

The University of Colorado Denver's English Master's program engages students in a full range of subject areas within the larger discipline of English. The curriculum offers training in the history of the English language, the influence of genre on narrative, the role of technology in writing and reading, and the history of literacy. Students build on their early coursework by specializing in Film and Literature, Rhetoric, or Applied Linguistics.

CAREER PATHS OF GRADUATES

- College instructors
- High school language arts teachers
- ESL teachers in foreign countries
- Editors and writers
- Ph.D. students in recognized programs (e.g. University of Arizona, Colorado Boulder, Florida, Maryland, and Texas)
- Writing consultants for businesses

WHY CHOOSE CU DENVER?

- Work with dedicated faculty who have published books with Oxford University Press, Cornell Univ. Press, the University of Pennsylvania Press, and others.
- Gain experience as an instructor at the college-level while pursuing coursework.
- Earn certificates in Women and Gender Studies, Teaching English Language Learners, and Teaching College-level Language and Literacy.
- Contribute to the award-winning literary journal, Copper Nickel, and the campus newspaper, The Sentry.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

5100	Intro to Graduate Studies
5135	English Language Studies
5145	Literary and Rhetorical Theory
5155	Genres of Writing
5165	Literacy and Technology
Grad Level	4 Elective Courses (12 credit hours)
6970	Portfolio OR
6950	Thesis

An English Advisor would be happy to sit down and discuss these courses with you. Please contact:

Office: 1015 9th Street Park, Rm 101

Phone: 303-556-8304

Email: English@ucdenver.edu

Find out more at
clas.ucdenver.edu/english

