

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL PRESENTS:
MASTER OF HUMANITIES AND MASTER OF SOCIAL SCIENCE

HOME
 OF THE
BRILLIANT.
 University of Colorado Denver

SEE THE WORLD FROM MULTIPLE PERSPECTIVES

The Master of Humanities and Master of Social Science Program (MHMSS) offers two unique interdisciplinary master degrees for students whose interests transcend the restrictions of traditional university disciplines. The MHMSS program teaches students innovative, interdisciplinary thinking, with an emphasis on integrated critical and analytical learning. Graduates are prepared to enter the workforce with unique skills that make them excellent problem solvers, ready to tackle the complex problems of a global economy.

CAREER PATHS OF GRADUATES

Careers pursued by MHMSS alumni include education, policy making, law, non-profit, arts organization, business, technology, higher education, international affairs, government, and health fields.

WHY CHOOSE CU DENVER?

For 30 years now, the MHMSS program has provided the most unique interdisciplinary graduate curriculum in Colorado and the region. By bringing together the best graduate coursework offered at CU Denver, students craft a study plan that addresses their unique and multifaceted questions. With its location on CU Denver's vibrant downtown campus, the MHMSS program fosters a culture of deep inquiry, community engagement, and learning.

MHMSS: One program. Infinite possibilities.

DEGREE CONCENTRATIONS

MH TRACKS

- Philosophy and Theory
- Visual Studies

MSS TRACKS

- Community Health Science
- Society and Environment
- International Studies

AVAILABLE FOR BOTH DEGREE PLANS

- Ethnic Studies
- Social Justice
- Women's and Gender Studies

GRADUATE CERTIFICATES OFFERED
 (to complement the MH or MSS degree)

- Health Humanities
- Women's and Gender Studies
- Democracy and Social Movements
- General Business
- Sustainable Urban Agriculture

Find out more at
clas.ucdenver.edu/ICT

